

ROMANS PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM

TO THE JEW FIRST 1:16

Hudson Taylor, one of the greatest missionaries of the 19th Century, had a custom that I would like to share with you: once a year, on New Year's Day, he would send a cheque to the Mildmay Mission to the Jews in London. On the back of the cheque he would write "To the Jew first." The leader of the Mildmay Mission, John Wilkinson, would respond by sending his personal cheque to the China Inland Mission with the notation, "And also to the Gentile."

These two great missionaries had a Romans 1:16 Partnership and they were carrying out the biblical principle of putting first things first. They were following the example of the Master himself, and of the greatest missionary of all time, the Apostle Paul - the principle the Gospel to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile.

JESUS & PAUL PREACHED THE GOSPEL TO THE JEW FIRST

We know that Jesus, the Jewish Messiah, ministered primarily to "the lost sheep of Israel" during his earthly mission. (Matthew 15:24) This was not because he cared for Jews more than he cared for Gentiles, but rather because it was in keeping with God's dealings and election of Israel. Jesus was putting first things first.

One would think, that as the Apostle commissioned to take the gospel to the Gentiles, Paul would have devoted minimal attention to evangelising Jews. Yet, Paul consistently followed the practice of going to the "Jew first, and then to the Gentiles". (Acts 3:26, 19:8-10)

Paul was following a biblical and theological principle articulated in Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Messiah: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek".

Sharing the gospel with Jewish people is not more important than missionary work amongst other peoples. It is not a matter of importance, but rather a matter of biblical priority.

The priority of Jewish evangelism is not because God especially loves the Jewish people; it is because He loves the World. The salvation of Israel has the nations in mind, for Paul tells us that Israel's salvation will be a great blessing to the whole world. (Rom 11:12, 15)

PLEASE PRAYERFULLY CONSIDER YOUR SUPPORT

Can I ask you to please prayerfully consider joining our Romans 1:16 Partnership Program. In the context of Jewish evangelism, Paul asked, "How can they call on the one they have not believed in? And how can they believe in the one of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone preaching to them? And how can they preach unless they are sent? As it is written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!". (Romans 10:14-15)
